PREAMBLE

Womafreesm World Women's Assembly is an international supranational coordination system that connects organizations, experts, researchers and institutions across borders to transform women's cases, evidence and research into policy recommendations, standards and institutional change.

These Partnership Terms define the conditions of partnership, rights and responsibilities of the parties, standards of conduct and rules of participation in the Assembly.

By signing these Partnership Terms, an organization confirms its agreement to observe their provisions throughout the period of cooperation.

ARTICLE I.

WHO CAN BECOME A PARTNER

The following may become partners of the Assembly: non-profit organizations; charitable foundations; universities; research centers; professional associations; analytical institutes; educational organizations; human rights organizations; media and journalism associations; other organizations whose activities align with the Assembly's mission.

ARTICLE II.

SHARED COMMITMENT

The partner acknowledges and supports the following principles: the dignity of every woman; respect for human rights; evidence-based approach; Equal Consideration of women's experience; international cooperation; non-violent approach; cultural and religious diversity; respect for diverse views and positions.

The partner is not required to share all concepts of Womafreesm, including the terminology of Synarchat, but undertakes to respect the Assembly's mission and to refrain from actions aimed at its discreditation.

ARTICLE III.

NONPARTISAN PRINCIPLE

3.1 Political neutrality

The Assembly does not support political parties, candidates or electoral campaigns. The partner undertakes to respect this principle when interacting with the Assembly.

3.2 Prohibition on political use

The partner may not: use its partnership status for political campaigning; use the Assembly's logo in political campaigns; create the impression of Assembly support for specific parties or candidates; use Assembly events for party mobilization.

3.3 Permissible advocacy

These Partnership Terms do not restrict the right of partners to: promote women's rights; participate in public consultations; prepare recommendations; critique laws and practices; propose reforms. The Assembly supports changes based on evidence and human rights, not support for political forces.

ARTICLE IV.

RESPECT FOR THE ASSEMBLY CODE OF ETHICS

The partner undertakes to observe the Assembly Code of Ethics and Conflict of Interest Policy. In particular, the partner undertakes to: refrain from spreading hatred; refrain from inciting violence; refrain from harassment; refrain from discriminatory practices; refrain from using the Assembly for personal conflicts; refrain from using the Assembly for reputational attacks; refrain from using the Assembly for unjustified advantage.

The Code also sets the rules on confidentiality, disclosure of conflicts of interest, independence from donors and respect for participants.

ARTICLE V.

PUBLIC STATEMENTS

5.1 Right to speak on own behalf

Every partner may publicly express its own position. The partner's position is not automatically the position of the Assembly.

5.2 Right to speak on behalf of the Assembly

Public statements on behalf of the Assembly may only be made by persons who have received the status of Assembly Representative through an official mandate from the Founder & President or the Assembly Council.

5.3 Use of partner status

Permitted formulations: Partner of Womafreesm World Women's Assembly; Assembly Partner; Research Partner; Academic Partner; Media Partner.

Prohibited formulations (unless officially granted): Official Representative of Womafreesm; Official Voice of Womafreesm; Authorized Spokesperson.

5.4 Media interactions

When interacting with media, the partner is required to clearly distinguish between its own position and the official position of the Assembly.

ARTICLE VI.

USE OF LOGOS AND VISUAL IDENTITY

6.1 Right of use

Assembly logos and visual elements may be used only after written permission.

6.2 Permitted use

Permitted on: partner pages; joint projects; research publications; events; reports.

6.3 Prohibited use

Prohibited: in political advertising; in commercial advertising without prior agreement; in content contradicting the Assembly Code of Ethics and Conflict of Interest Policy; in materials misleading the public about the role of the Assembly.

6.4 Right of revocation

The Assembly may revoke permission to use the logo at any time.

ARTICLE VII.

CASE MANAGEMENT

7.1 General principles

The Assembly works only with cases that comply with established procedures as defined in the Case Intake Protocol.

7.2 Good faith information

The partner undertakes to provide information in good faith and not to conceal material circumstances known to it.

7.3 Fact verification

The partner acknowledges the Assembly's right to: verify information; request additional materials; reject cases; suspend case review.

7.4 No automatic endorsement

Submission of a case does not constitute automatic endorsement of the applicant's position. Every case undergoes independent assessment.

7.5 Protection of case participants

The safety of people involved in a case is the priority. If publication of information could create a risk for participants, the Assembly may restrict the dissemination of information.

ARTICLE VIII.

ASSEMBLY OUTPUTS

The partner acknowledges that the Assembly produces official outputs based on verified cases, evidence and research. These outputs carry the institutional authority of the Assembly.

Assembly outputs include: Legal Rapid Response; Evidence Briefs; Policy Briefs; Standards; Public Statements; Expert Opinions; Research Reports.

The partner may contribute to the preparation of Assembly outputs through expertise, data, case submissions and joint initiatives. The final authority over the content and publication of all outputs rests with the Assembly.

ARTICLE IX.

CONFIDENTIALITY

9.1 General principle

All non-public information is treated as confidential until a decision is made on its publication.

9.2 What constitutes confidential information

The following may be considered confidential: personal information; participant contacts; investigation materials; internal discussions; draft documents; research data prior to publication; information about potential cases.

9.3 Partner obligations

The partner undertakes to: not transfer confidential materials to third parties; ensure reasonable data protection; comply with applicable data protection legislation.

9.4 Publicity by consent

Any public mention of a person or organization is made only with appropriate consent or lawful basis.

ARTICLE X.

DATA PROTECTION

The partner undertakes to comply with applicable data protection requirements, including GDPR, UK GDPR and national data protection regulations.

The partner undertakes to use only the necessary volume of data and to adhere to the principle of data minimization.

ARTICLE XI.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

The partner is required to report any circumstances that could affect the objectivity of joint work.

Concealment of a material conflict of interest may constitute grounds for review or termination of the partnership.

ARTICLE XII.

SUSPENSION AND TERMINATION

The Assembly may suspend or terminate a partnership in case of: violation of these Partnership Terms; spreading hatred; political abuse of partner status; systematic dissemination of inaccurate information; actions creating serious reputational risk; violation of security and confidentiality requirements.

The decision to terminate a partnership is made by the Assembly after consideration of the circumstances.

ARTICLE XIII.

FINAL PROVISIONS

These Partnership Terms are the foundational document of the partnership between an organization and Womafreesm World Women's Assembly.

By signing these Partnership Terms, the organization acknowledges the stated principles and confirms its readiness to observe them throughout the period of cooperation.

These Partnership Terms are subordinate to and derive their authority from the Assembly Statute (Version 2.0).

This document is published in English and Russian. In case of discrepancy, the English text prevails.
